THE JUNGLE BOOK

The Jungle Book is a 2016 American adventure drama film directed and produced by Jon Favreau, written by Justin Marks and produced by Walt Disney Pictures. Based on Rudyard Kipling's eponymous collective works, the film is a live-action/CGI adaptation of Walt Disney's 1967 animated film of the same title. Neel Sethi plays Mowgli, an orphaned human boy who, guided by his animal guardians, sets out on a journey of self-discovery while evading the threatening Shere Khan. The film includes voice and motion capture performances from Bill Murray, Ben Kingsley, Idris Elba, Lupita Nyong'o, Scarlett Johansson, Giancarlo Esposito, and Christopher Walken.

THE 5 SENSES

HOW THIS CINEMA TICKLED MY SENSE OF SIGHT

This is one of the most visually stunning movies ever made in the history o cinema.

Beautiful jungle landscape, breath taking forest views, lakes, rivers, flora fauna, gigantic creatures, imposing cliffs, the incredible buffalo stampede, the larger than lif

HOW THIS CINEMA TICKLED MY SENSE OF HEARING

- Mowgli imitating the sound of wolves
- Baloo’s roar
- The deafening sound of the thunderstorms
- Kaa falling out of the trees making a powerful ruffling sound and his fear instilling hissing
- The gurgling sound of flowing water
- The trumpet of the majestic lions

HOW THIS CINEMA TICKLED MY SENSE OF TASTE

I could taste the tartness of berries, sweetness of bananas and papayas, silkiness and smoothness of honey.

The way the cinema shows Mowgli and other characters eat these, one can feel as though he/she is a part of this jungle treat!

HOW THIS CINEMA TICKLED MY SENSE OF TOUCH

The snuggles and cuddles between Mowgli and Raksha were so real that I felt as though I was receiving them.

When Mowgli applies honey to his stings, I could feel its smoothness on my skin.

When Kaa the Python coils around Mowgli, I felt as though I was trapped and started feeling claustrophobic.

When the jungle was on fire, I was scorched by the heat of it. I could feel every sensation.

HOW THIS CINEMA TICKLED MY SENSE OF SMELL

I could smell the rawness of flesh when Sher Khan killed Akela

I could smell the burning trees when the forest was on fire

I could smell the sweet breeze when winter set in

I could smell the wildness of berries

I could smell the presence of elephants, lions, panthers, wolves, buffaloes and squirrels

I could smell the freshness of forest trees

Disney

Thus we see how this movie ‘The Jungle Book’ not only tickles all our 5 senses but completely awakens them.

Disney THE JUNGLE BOOK

The movie powerfully evokes all senses and is a treat to our sense of sight, hearing, touch, smell and taste. Seldom has a movie been made that is so complete by itself and stands testimony to the perfect balance of all the 5 senses..

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Anandita Ma’am for having provided me with the wonderful opportunity of making this awesome project. It not only enhanced my knowledge but also my creativity and research skills. The project uses a very simple yet innovative and attractive approach. Thank you for helping me grow each day Ma’am.
